5. The Board next considered a request from [REDACTED] for the deferment of her retirement under the Civil Service Retirement System from 30 September 1970 until 30 September 1971. [REDACTED] states that this further extension will allow her to complete 15 years of creditable service. [REDACTED] was granted a previous extension of her retirement date from September 1969, and at that time the Director approved the extension with the understanding that further extension would not be requested.

[REDACTED] was subsequently referred to the External Employment Assistance Branch for assistance in securing employment after her retirement. The Director of Security states that while [REDACTED] appears to be in good health she continues to use her sick leave as earned. The Security Clerical Career Service Board and the Director of Security concluded that [REDACTED] has had sufficient opportunity to plan for her post-retirement on the basis of the earlier decision, and recommended that her request not be approved. The Deputy Director for Support recommended disapproval of [REDACTED] basic request. The Board recommended that [REDACTED] s request be disapproved, based on the fact that neither the Director of Security or the Deputy Director for Support had supported the request, and in consideration of the earlier statement by the Director.

6. The final case considered by the Board was a request from [REDACTED] for the deferment of her retirement under the Civil Service Retirement System from 31 December 1970 until 30 June 1971 for personal and financial reasons. [REDACTED] states that the additional six months will increase her annuity by more than $300.00 per annum and is important to her in meeting her financial obligations. She states that her plans for moving her home from the Washington area are not complete, and the additional time would be most helpful. The Director, Basic and Geographic Intelligence states that he endorses [REDACTED] request for a six month extension, and notes that she has served the Agency in an excellent manner as a reference librarian and is certainly capable of continuing in a highly productive capacity. The Deputy Director for Intelligence has concurred in the request with the understanding that the effective date of [REDACTED]
